

First MES Day in Shanghai, China

How to improve efficiency, quality, safety and regulatory compliance in pharmaceutical production

AstraZeneca and Novartis to present MES case studies

On March 31, Bayer Technology & Engineering, Shanghai (BTES) and Werum Software & Systems will host the first PAS-X MES Day for the pharmaceutical industry in China. Highlights of the event will be the presentations of MES case studies: AstraZeneca reports on the first-time Pharma MES installation in China which took place in its Wuxi site in the Jiangsu Province. Novartis gives an introduction into their MES employment in Singapore and will share experiences on the day-by-day usage of a full-scope MES software. A presentation and live-demo of Werum's Chinese language PAS-X MES will provide hands-on insights into the software application. Presentations on regulatory trends in China and an introduction to GAMP 5 round-up the agenda of the MES Day.
